OTIS Safety Steam ELEVATORS, OTIS BROS. & CO.
 and Hydraulic
 92 and 94 Liberty Street, New York:

THE HOLE IN THE FLOOR.

In the primitive days of our grandfathers' time,
 When the fire-place, genial and bright,
 Its cavernous recesses glowing with flame,
 Filled the old-fashioned kitchen with light;
 They used often to gather at close of the day,
 Round the hearth-stone, that altar of yore;
 But men of this modern and glorified age,
 Collect round—a hole in the floor.

The grandfather sat in the chimney nook,
 In an old-fashioned splint-bottomed chair,
 And solemnly read from the blessed old Book,
 Then knelt with the household in prayer;
 Their altar, the time-honored hearth-stone, with gleams
 Of the fire-light flickering o'er,
 We moderns all worship 'neath fresco and gas,
 Our altar—a hole in the floor.

When from the old hearth-stone the children went forth
 To join in the soul-thrilling strife,
 And win themselves laurels or valiantly brave
 The buffeting surges of life;

Then with world-wearied hearts yearning sadly
 for rest, [more;
 They would seek the old hearth-stone once
 But we, when aweary with toil and oppressed,
 Return to—the hole in the floor.

When the tumult of war o'ershadowed our land,
 And our forefathers rushed to the fray,
 To repel the invaders that threatened our homes,
 Leaving mothers and daughters to pray—
 The thoughts of their hearth-stones gave strength to their arms
 And thrilled their brave hearts to the core,
 But our heroes when called on their homes to
 Must fight for—a hole in the floor. [defend,

Then let us rejoice that we live in an age
 When instead of the hearth-stone's bright glow,
 Or the cavernous fire-place cheery with flames,
 We have "modern improvements," you know.
 And when we converse of those primitive times,
 And the jolly old customs of yore, [ways,
 We will laugh as we think of their old-fashioned
 As we sit round—the hole in the floor.

LOCKWOOD'S ACADEMY,

FOR YOUTH OF BOTH SEXES,

139 & 141 South Oxford Street,

(A FEW DOORS SOUTH OF FULTON STREET.)

BROOKLYN, N. Y.

(Principal's Residence, 63 Herkimer Street.)

The Fourteenth Year of this Institution Commences on Monday, Sept. 10th, 1883, at 9 o'clock.

There are no vacancies in the school for those who find it hard to tell the truth; for boys who use tobacco; nor for those who have any habit of speech or behavior at variance with purity of character.

There is but one regular session, beginning at 9 o'clock and closing at 1 o'clock. Besides this there is provided an afternoon Delinquent and Study Session. One purpose of this session is to afford pupils whatever assistance they may require to prepare their next day's lessons.

The general aim of the curriculum* in the Primary, Intermediate, and Academic Departments, is to give the scholar a practical education, much stress being laid upon the ability to write a good letter, properly arranged, correctly expressed and spelled, legibly written, clear and to the point.

The Primary Grades have oral instruction in French and German without extra charge.

The Collegiate Department covers Three Years.

The first year's honor† is a silver medal; the second, a gold medal; the third, a silver chaplet; the sixth, a gold chaplet; the ninth, a diamond chaplet. This last is bestowed only upon graduation.

For CALISTHENICS a large room is set apart, where daily instruction is given in this beautiful exercise.

The rates of Tuition for the regular English studies range from $5.00 to $25.00, payable in advance.

Pupils are received at any time, and charged from the date of entrance, except that no deduction is made for the first two weeks of the academic year.

JOHN LOCKWOOD, Principal.

* For a detailed exhibit of the curriculum, send for a circular.

† Rank is determined by percentages obtained at the monthly and yearly examinations, not by competition.

The Battery sent me last June has been working constantly ever since, and doing excellent work. Some of my cures have been almost miraculous.
